SESSION BREAKDOWN

BARBARA KURIGER NATIONAL MP

A dairy farmer before entering Parliament in 2014, Barbara remains active in her family farming operations, although milks very few cows these days.

Barbara is inaugural 2012 Dairy Woman of the Year and has been a member of the Boards of DairyNZ, Primary ITO, Taratahi, Dairy Women's Network and NZ Young Farmers. In 2014 she became a Fellow of the New Zealand Institute of Directors.

From 2018 to 2020, Barbara was elected the Senior Whip for the National Caucus. Currently she is National's Spokesperson for Energy & Resources, Associate Transport, Food Safety and Rural Communities. She is Chair of Parliament's Governance & Administration Select Committee.

Barbara splits her time between her Taranaki-King Country electorate and Wellington. It is her rural electorate where she enjoys being grounded in her rural communities fully dedicated to achieving better policy outcomes.

Barbara has a track record of advocating for better rural services, running the rural ruler over policies to ensure they are fit for purpose.

CATHER SIMPSON Chief Science Officer for Engender Technologies

Lasers, Sperm and Sustainability. Cather Simpson the Chief Science Officer for Engender Technologies, a University of Auckland spin-out developing technology to sort sperm by sex for the dairy industry.

She moved from the USA to Auckland in 2007 to take up a position at the University of Auckland, where she is now on leave from her position as a Professor of Physics and Chemistry. Cather's research explores the interaction of light with matter, particularly how materials can convert light into more useful forms of energy.

For the last 10 years, she has focused on agriculture, where her work has led to two internationally award winning spinout companies, including Engender which won the 2016 Silicon Valley Forum 1st-place AgTech medal. Recent accolades include a Ako Aotearoa National Teaching Excellence award and the 2019 Pickering Medal from the Royal Society of New Zealand Te Apārangi. She was named Baldwins Researcher Entrepreneur and BNZ Supreme winner at the 2016 KiwiNet awards, and is a NZ Primary Industries Champion and a Fellow of the Royal Society of New Zealand Te Apārangi.

Her keen interest in sustainable agriculture has led to invitations to speak nationally and internationally, from Te Papa to the New Zealand Parliament's Speaker Science Forum, and from UNESCO's International Day of Light celebration in Trieste to the prestigious Perimeter Institute for Theoretical Physics in Canada.

TRISH RANKIN 2019 DWN Fonterra Dairy Woman of the Year

Trish is a Sharemilker on 450 cows in Taranaki, with her husband Glen, and four boys. She was the 2019 DWN Fonterra Dairy Woman of the Year. Trish is on the NZ National Executive for the NZ Dairy Awards, the NZ Dairy Enviro Leaders Steering Committee for DairyNZ and has her own consultation and facilitation business – Porohita.

Trish is part of the team facilitating Venture Taranaki's 2050 Transition to a Low Emission Economy Project. An active Dairy Enviro Leader (DEL) and member of the NZ DEL network, she is also Chair of the Taranaki DEL group. Trish is a NZ Climate Change Ambassador. In 2019, Trish undertook the Kellogg Leadership Programme with the main purpose being a research project focused on how a circular economy model can be developed on a New Zealand dairy farm.

Trish also enjoys being part of the Opunake Surf Life Saving Club. She has been a part of DWN for 8 years having helped developed a module that was rolled out nationwide and an active local attendee at events.
